“ My mother is an Alzheimer patient. I just spent a week on vacation and visiting her. The staff is excellent with her, and the nurses are awesome. I live in Illinois and my sister in Corpus Christi, so we are happy to know she is so cared for. The home is clean and well kept. Thank you all for giving such loving care to my mother and the others there.

Residents thrive in the loving, safe, and secure environment with an array of amenities and engaging programs.

Residents at Texas-based Caraday of Corpus Christi are assured a continuum of care with assisted living, short-term rehabilitation, and skilled nursing services – all delivered with a person-focused tradition of excellence. Active seniors and those on the road to recovery enjoy the dynamic community focusing on all aspects of the individual, including physical, emotional, and spiritual health.

A seasoned team of experienced caregivers create individualized care plans, whether it's for a short-term rehab stay, post-surgery recovery, or care that's more long-term. Residents aspire to getting back to the highest functional level possible in an environment where they enjoy working hard to achieve their goals. The focus is on recovering and returning to daily living as quickly as possible.
