

John Amyx, MSJ, LNFA, CDP

Administrator, Caraday of Quitman

Whether recovering after hospitalization or requiring long-term care services, residents at Caraday of Quitman, a 5-star community, are assured a high level of personalized care. The homelike environment at Caraday of Quitman nurtures a sense of calm and ease so that the focus is solely on recovery and quality of life.

John has a versatile background and a wealth of knowledge in long-term care business and finance. In 2016, he became an administrator, and has worked in East Texas since. He is a Veteran of the U.S. Army, where he served eight years active duty in Finance and Accounting.

John earned his BA from Southern New Hampshire University before continuing to Seton Hall University School of Law to earn a Master of Jurisprudence with a dual concentration in Healthcare Law and Privacy Law.

To fuel his desire for continuing education, John is an active member of the American College of Healthcare Executives, American College of Healthcare Administrators, and the Healthcare Compliance Association.

In his free time John loves hunting, fishing, camping, and riding motorcycles—but most importantly, spending time with his family.
