

Raul Espinosa Jr., LNFA

Administrator, Regency House

Providing individualized short-term rehabilitation and long-term skilled nursing home care in south Angelo, Regency House is a gracious community that promotes warmth and a sense of family. With its convenient location near medical centers and hospitals, Regency House is in the hub of a healthcare community in San Angelo.

Raul Espinosa Jr. serves as Administrator at Caraday, bringing more than 25 years of senior care leadership experience. His career has taken him to communities across Texas, California, Utah, and Arizona, including serving as Executive Director of a 240-bed continuing care retirement community. His experience spans operations, financial management, assisted living, and long-term care.

Raul believes exceptional care begins with a strong, positive culture where residents, families, and team members feel valued and supported. He is passionate about developing teams that deliver high-quality care while creating an environment filled with smiles and laughter. For Raul, a positive culture is also essential to employee satisfaction and retention.

A licensed long-term care administrator in Texas, Arizona, and California, Raul holds a Bachelor of Business Administration and has specialized training in caring for individuals living with dementia and Alzheimer's disease. He previously served in a regional role with the Texas Health Care Association, providing education to administrators in the San Antonio area.

What motivates Raul most is seeing the results of his team's work reflected in the smiles of residents each day. Outside of work, he enjoys landscaping, spending time with his family, and cooking with his wife as they experiment with new dishes and recipes.
