

Robert McMinn, BS, LNFA

Administrator, Caraday of Lampasas

With its long-established roots in the community, Caraday of Lampasas honors its common values of respect and dignity. Whether recovering from a hospitalization or needing long-term care, the team of healthcare experts and professional caregivers work closely with residents and their families to develop individualized care plans to get back to the highest functional level possible.

Robert (Bob) McMinn graduated from Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana in 1978. He Joined ServiceMaster Industries (a provider of Environmental Services to hospitals). He held positions with ServiceMaster in Indianapolis and Detroit while completing the Plant Operations and Maintenance program with ServiceMaster. He left that company after 12 years to join Forum Group Inc., developers of upscale retirement and CCRC communities.

A job opening in Texas brought him to Texas in 1998. He was responsible for Life Safety Code compliance and renovations for several long term care providers. For a brief time, he operated Trinity Elite Health Care, a Skilled Nursing/Retirement Community group.

He obtained his LNFA in January of 2016. He and his wife Ann have been married more than 40 years, and they have one son Patrick (a musician who lives in Baltimore, Maryland).
