

Georgina Villarreal , BS, CALM, LVN

Executive Director, Caraday Corpus Christi Assisted Living

Engaged living, beautiful surroundings, and a deep sense of community – all with the compassionate care that is a hallmark of the Caraday Way.

Whether you enjoy the freedom of personal independence or the comfort of being catered to, Caraday of Corpus Christi Assisted Living is tailored to meet your personal needs and preferences.

Georgina began her journey as an Executive Director in 2015 and joined Caraday in January 2022. With over 20 years of nursing experience, she brings a deep well of clinical knowledge and compassion to her leadership. Her greatest inspiration comes from the opportunity to positively impact the lives of residents and their families.

Georgina is both a licensed vocational nurse (LVN) and a certified assisted living manager (CALM), and her leadership style is marked by authenticity and dedication.

Outside of work, she enjoys reading, fishing, camping, and cherishing time with her sons, daughters-in-law, granddaughter, and her beloved fur baby, Buda.
